

others. You're leaving $6 million, roughly, in the pot undistributed. That is option one. Do nothing. Option two is Senator Lamb's proposal. That does not have 33 votes. I don't come out as well, under that, as I do under this, and a lot of others don't. Option three, my original bill. What was my original bill? My original bill was simply forget all formulas, forget everything and take the money away from the people that are getting the windfall and give it to all the losers. Put everybody back to where they were. I don't have 33 votes. I don't have 25 votes for that proposal. Option four, go with Senator Lewis' $6.1 million. In other words, get the distribution of the entire $55 million, but take the $6.1 million and distribute it on ADM. That helps a lot of us. That, at least, begins to solve the crisis. You could call it 50 percent solution of the crisis. But Frank Lewis, Omaha and Lincoln need to resolve this crisis as much as Neligh, O'Neill, Norfolk, Gothenburg, Sidney. So where are we? I say okay, you need to solve that crisis. If you can go $6.1 million, let me get into your shorts just a little more. Let me go $7.5 million, distributed on this basis. Frank says okay. Ten million? Should I have shot for $10 million? I don't know? Seven point five is what I can get. What I think we can get 33 votes for. Now Senator Dworak, you and I are in a different position. It is easy to stand here and criticize every single piece of legislation that comes up and say I don't like this because it does this, it isn't perfect. I don't like this piece of legislation because it's not perfect. But you see I've got to get the bill passed, or somebody has to get the bill passed. It's a lot more difficult to get a bill passed then it is just to criticize it. So this solution isn't perfect. You better believe it isn't perfect. If I had my choice I'd have my original bill. I'd have my original bill. I'd take a half a million away from Frank Lewis. I'd take a million or two away from Omaha. I'd take a million away from Lincoln and I'd say let's go back to where we were. I can't get that done, and you know it. Everybody knows it. So let's solve the problem as far as we can and do it now. Quit playing the game of merely criticizing and saying this solution isn't perfect. It is as far as you can go this year, immediately, to resolve this crisis. It is, indeed, a crisis. I urge you to adopt the amendment.

PRESIDENT: The question is the adoption of John DeCamp's amendment. Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays on the adoption of Senator DeCamp's amendment, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is adopted. What else do you have, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, I move the bill be advanced, and in the same motion I would like to include the concept that it be expedited on the theory that it possibly could even get back here today or tomorrow.

PRESIDENT: Discussion? The question is the advancement of the bill. Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays.
